Bosman is a millionaire and states that he came to visit California for health and pleasure.

Those on the passenger list of the Korea with Bosman were Mrs. Margaret Bosman and maid, Mrs. Clara Bosman and maid, Miss Victoria Bosman, Master Edward Bosman and Bosman's servant. It is alleged that the two Mesdames Bosman are the wives of R. H. T. Bosman.

NO HOMESTEADER CAN GROW CANE

The Advisory Land Commission held a session in the Throne Room of the Executive building this morning which lasted for some time, but at which no new suggestions in regard to the remedy of defects in the present laws were suggested which appeared to have much significance. W. O. Smith was the most sensational in opinion of those present, who were very few in number. He protested against the very feature of Governor Frear's new

TO VISIT MOLOKAI

DIRECTOR NEWELL WILL EXAMINE POSSIBILITIES OF LAND RECLAMATION ON THE ISLAND.

Secretary Mott-Smith has just completed the arrangements for Governor Frear, Director Newell and party to visit the island of Molokai. They will not go to the Settlement at all but will make the trip simply to allow Mr. Newell to see the exceptionally fine opportunity for the reclamation of arid land existing on the island.

Perhaps the most important place in all the islands for Mr. Newell to see is the section of Molokai where the American Sugar Company made such a failure. It will be remembered that the failure was due to the fact that when the company tried to obtain water from artesian wells, it was so brackish that it could not be used for irrigation of cane. The hills behind this land, however, have plenty of water and it is believed that by the establishment of a proper system of dams and ditches, irrigation could be provided that would reclaim for agricultural purposes nearly 60,000 acres of land which is now good only for grazing.

The majority of this land is under lease at present, much of it being in one large crown lease which dates back to 1888 and does not expire till 1918. It will probably be some time before any money for reclamation can be obtained from the Federal Government, so it may be possible that this will be one of the first schemes which Mr. Newell's service will take up.

The trip to Maui will be made on the Mikahala, which will touch at Lahaina for the party when it comes back from Hawaii on the Mauna Kea on October 17. They will be landed at Kaunakakai and then be picked up again in time to bring them to this city on October 20.

SOME NOMINATIONS

The nomination papers of the various candidates for the Legislature are beginning to come in to Secretary Mott-Smith. Kauai Republicans are mostly on deck and a number from this island and Hawaii have been heard from though none from Maui as yet. The following have filed their papers, accompanied by the proper fee of $25, the latter being in cash or postal order, no checks being accepted.

Representatives—Fifth District, E. B. Mikalemi; Fourth, J. C. Cohen; Sixth, J. H. Coney; C. A. Rice, George Huddy; First, D. K. Kaikamal, David Kuhl, Solomon H. Hele La.

Senators—First District, Henry West, Christian Andrews; Fourth, Sixth, George Faltreid; Fourth, Edgar Henriques.

A special agreement which has been looked to as a remedy for existing evils. This was the holding back of title for ten years by the government. Mr. Smith stated that he did not believe that it was right to prevent a homesteader from receiving title for so long a time. He stated that even six years was too long. When a young man took up land for homestead purposes he believed that he should obtain title in full in a short period and that this would be one of the things which would bring the right sort of men to apply for land.

In response to questions on the subject, John Hind, of Kohala, stated that it was impossible for a homesteader to grow cane profitably. He said that it had been shown again and again that a single man, working for himself, could not cultivate more than from six to ten acres of cane land. If he ran

TERRITORY GAINS WATER RIGHT

REVELATIONS IN WAILUKU WATER INJUNCTION CASE OPEN WAY FOR GOVERNMENT TO ESTABLISH CLAIM ON CERTAIN PRIVATE WATER RIGHTS ADVERSE TO WAILUKU SUGAR COMPANY—ORAL AGREEMENTS TO BE PUT IN WRITING.

The Territory seems likely to be the gainer as the result of the injunction suit brought against it by the Wailuku Sugar Company to prevent it from taking more water from Iao Valley and the Wailuku stream. As the result of the investigation which has just been completed by Acting Attorney General W. L. Whitney the Wailuku Sugar Company will probably lose a large amount of water which it has been getting for eight years and to which it would get full title after two years more. The suit has caused this fact to become known and the Territory will immediately take steps to obtain title to this water which it would have been barred from in another twenty-four months.

DOES THE RULE WORK BOTH WAYS?

Will Sheriff Iaukea resign at the end of the present month? Many people think that if the sheriff continues his announcements and does not break faith with the public this may be expected. In the Advertiser the following appeared yesterday morning:

"With the nominations of Charles Rose, chief clerk for deputy sheriff; Dan Kamahu, receiving clerk, for supervisor; and John Prendergast, for a county office, comes the announcement from Koolau, that their resignations are expected at the end of the present month."

In this morning's paper Iaukea and "Bonnie" Mansarrat are announced as independent candidates for Sheriff and deputy. The question now comes, will Iaukea force his subordinates to resign and keep to his promises, will he resign himself and keep faith, or will he break all promises and stay in the field for office and also still stay in office?

POLITICS

The political situation in Honolulu today is more chaotic than ever. Admiral George C. Beckley announced himself today as a candidate for treasurer, independent, joining with Carlos Long for County attorney and Iaukea for sheriff.

The situation is regarded by many as pointing to almost a loss of party lines. Long's coming out as an independent candidate for county attorney is regarded by most political observers as a result of the fact that two haoles were on the two opposing regular tickets. Similarly where two whites, Von Holt and Trent, are opposed on the other tickets, Beckley steps in as a Hawaiian candidate. In all this the party managers are at sea. There is so much seeming political dishonor that, as one party leader put it, "it will soon seem useless to hold conventions or make agreements." For example, in the minds of some of the delegates to the Republican convention, a part of the price of the Lane nomination for mayor, was the Long withdrawal from the county attorney fight. Yet within a week Long is out "independent."

Iaukea and Long will both have the Civic Federation and Anti-Saloon League support, according to street talk, though a prominent Civic Federation leader today spoke in favor of Wise for sheriff. Opinions differ as to who will suffer by the independent candidacies. It seems to be the opinion of a majority of the politicians that Iaukea will draw votes about equally from Wise and Jarrett and that Long's strength will come from votes that would have been for Cathcart, Beckley is not regarded very seriously as yet. The candidacy of Long has revived the race talk more than ever. Long's well known intimacy with the Kuhio-Lane-Colburn element, gives the matter an unpleasant appearance to many, and no man was ever more bitterly assailed for bad faith than Long is being assailed now. "Long simply told Kuhio and all the rest of the leaders to go to h—l," said Chillingworth in speaking of the attorney's butting into the fight. Long's friends say that he has received important pledges of support. At any rate he has revived the race issue and boomed it beyond precedent.

Republican campaign plans are a good deal disturbed by the illness of A. L. C. Atkinson, chairman of the Territorial Committee. It appears to be worse than a temporary indisposition, of a nature indeed to threaten Mr. Atkinson's ability to take any further part in the campaign. Last night he had a high temperature and the symptoms indicated an attack of bronchitis.

Mr. Atkinson at all events cannot leave tomorrow for the island of Hawaii, as was decided he should at the first meeting of the Republican Terri-
